

Next Generation Award
Leadership

Benjamin Jake Kornick

Nominated by Nassau County Youth Board

2011 Long Island Volunteer Hall of Fame

Next Generation Award Leadership

Benjamin Jake Kornick

Nominated by: Nassau County Youth Board

Benjamin Kornick has actively volunteered in his community since elementary school, coaching sports activities for children with developmental disabilities. He has volunteered more than 1,000 hours in the past four years and has raised thousands of dollars for a variety of nonprofit organizations. He is a senior at Roslyn High School.

Mr. Kornick is a member of the Nassau County Executive Youth Council. He has spoken at several professional conferences about Internet safety and cyber-bullying and has led student workshops on diversity. He is on the Executive Board of Directors of the Nassau County Youth Board and is a youth program administrator of the Nassau County Youth Court.

2011 Long Island Volunteer Hall of Fame