Glenda White-Hills, MHS ADS

Millennium Sistahs Inc

Founded 1999

Glenda White-Hills has always been a humanitarian concerned with the needs of marginal groups and has devoted herself to the needs of women and girls. She is the Founder/President of Millennium Sistahs Inc and Millennium Sistahs of Trinidad and Tobago. She has been Advocacy Director at Kingsbrook Jewish Hospital and an Adjunct Professor at La Guardia College.

The mission of Millennium Sistahs is to enhance life, promote visibility and provide medical and social services to young women and adults worldwide. The group sponsors a Community Baby Shower program, a food pantry, a worldwide medical missionary program delivering free medical treatment, a back to school/school supply program and an annual conference on women's issues.
